Pope Francis in his letter about Holiness ('Rejoice and be Glad') says: I would stress too that the 'genius of woman' is seen in feminine styles of holiness, which are an essential means of reflecting God's holiness in this world. Indeed, in times when women tended to be most ignored or overlooked, the Holy Spirit raised up saints whose attractiveness produced new spiritual vigour and important reforms in the Church. We can mention St. Teresa of Avila, St. Therese of Lisieux. But I think also of those unknown or forgotten women who, each in her own way, sustained and transformed families and communities by the power of their witness. (paragraph 12)

We welcome into the community of faith, the recently baptised:

*Kayla Rose Grace Smith McDonnell
Emily Bolger
Eleanor Roseanna Durnin
Ollie Conor Lennon
Ben Joseph Tuite
Blake Casey*

The Church Gate
Collection this week-end is on behalf of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

All the Saints of Ireland are celebrated on the 6th of November (Tuesday). We are familiar with the names of saints such as Patrick, Columba, Brigid, Oliver Plunkett, Malachy and each has her/his own feast day. Today we recall, in a special way, all those who down the generations kept the flame of faith alive, very often in extremely different circumstances. We praise and thank God for their fidelity. Perhaps each of us can identify a saintly person that has been part of our own lives.
